Patron Capital triumphs at the unquote”
British Private Equity Awards

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property backed investments, has won the ‘Responsible Investor of the Year’ category at the 12th annual unquote” British Private Equity Awards.

The prestigious award is recognition of how Patron specifically seeks out investments that benefit society and also does an exceptional amount of charity work alongside its core activities.

Hosted by broadcaster Krishnan Guru-Murthy, the awards celebrated innovation and excellence in private equity and venture capital, as well as honouring the industry’s ability to help build British businesses - and in doing so, boost the wider economy.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

“This is a fantastic achievement that reflects the hard work of our team and our employees’ belief in our ethos of giving back, both through our day-to-day work and the charitable activities we undertake. This award is testament to the careful choices we make both in terms of investing in businesses, backing management teams and helping them to develop; and establishing meaningful charity partnerships and initiatives to work with and support those most in need.”

Patron was also shortlisted for ‘Fundraising of the Year’, in recognition of a particularly active 12 months with the closing of its fifth fund, which raised €949 million.
