Patron Capital MD participates in virtual Real Estate Capital Markets Conference

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property-backed investments, recently participated in an online event hosted by Goodwin and Columbia Business School, providing an update on the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic on real estate and the capital markets. This virtual Real Estate Capital Markets Conference (RECM) follows Keith's participation in the annual conference held in New York City in January.

Keith's presentation discussed the impact of Covid-19, his thoughts about the shape and duration of recovery in the capital markets and across a range of sectors and countries in Europe, and the fundamentals that will drive this. The webinar was well attended with more than 500 participants in attendance, and can be viewed using the following link:
