Patron Capital is Highly Commended at 2017 Charity Times Awards

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property backed investments, together with its charity partner The Royal Marines Charity (RMC), have been ‘Highly Commended’ for the Corporate National Partnership of the Year with a Financial Institution Award at the 2017 Charity Times Awards.

Patron has been recognised for its outstanding partnership with the RMC, supporting the charity’s goal to enhance the lives of hundreds of Royal Marines and their families by helping them to rebuild their lives following physical and psychological injury. Patron has worked with the RMC since 2010, providing ex-servicemen and women with valuable introductions, mentoring and opportunities, as well as improving the charity’s ability to raise funds.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, commented:

"Yet again, our close-knit partnership with The Royal Marines Charity has been recognised by the wider charity sector. We are passionate about the positive social impact our work has, and our relationship with The Royal Marines Charity is fundamental to this.

“These ex-servicemen and women, injured in active duty, deserve to lead decent civilian lives after service and so we are proud to be giving something back for their commitment and bravery. Our contributions have exceeded £1.2m since inception and we look forward to our continued partnership with The Royal Marines Charity.”

Jonathan Ball, Chief Executive of the Royal Marines Charity, said:

“Keith Breslauer and the Patron Capital team have been crucial to our work as The Royal Marines Charity continues to grow. This partnership goes beyond simply raising cash, and I am delighted that this collaboration has been recognised by the UK charity and not-for-profit sector.”
