Patron Capital shortlisted at Business Charity Awards

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property backed investments, has been shortlisted together with its charity partner The Royal Marines Charity in the Charity partnership - property & construction category at the Business Charity Awards.

The Business Charity Awards recognise the outstanding contribution made by UK businesses to good causes. The awards not only highlight the role that individuals, teams and entire companies play in supporting charitable activity, but also help to educate the wider business community about the best ways to support good causes.

The winners will be announced at a ceremony on 25 May.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

“The shortlisting is testament to our special partnership with The Royal Marines Charity. It demonstrates how businesses and charities can work in collaboration and go beyond simply raising cash. We are proud to be supporting service veterans injured in active duty and giving something back for their commitment and bravery.”
