Patron Capital shortlisted at the European Pensions Awards 2019 for the third year in a row

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property-backed investments, has been shortlisted in the Property Manager of the Year category at the prestigious European Pensions Awards 2019 for the third year in a row.

The Property Manager of the Year category recognises pension fund managers that have proved themselves in the field of property investment, showing creativity in their product offerings, and demonstrating an excellence and consistency in management.

Patron's shortlisting reflects its exceptional achievements in 2018, during which it has delivered high returns, whilst continuing to be both flexible and innovative in its approach. Last year saw Patron complete a number of major transactions, including the sale of its share in CALA Homes to L&G for £315 million, as well as several other highly profitable exits and opportunistic acquisitions, such as The Laine Pub Company, complementing Patron's existing investment in Punch Taverns.

The European Pensions Awards 2019 honour the investment firms, consultancies and pension providers that have set the professional standards in order to best serve pension funds across Europe. The winners will be announced on the 20th June 2019 at the London Marriott Hotel, in Grosvenor Square.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

"We are thrilled to have received a shortlisting for the European Pensions Awards for the third year running. In the face of ongoing political and economic uncertainty, the Patron team has consistently demonstrated high returns and innovation in the deals it has done, including major, complex acquisitions, such as the sale of CALA Homes. Coupling exceptional investment performance with a strong commitment to ethics, we look set to continue as one of Europe's strongest property fund managers."
