Keith Breslauer shortlisted for Individual Leader of the Year at the Global Good Awards 2019

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property-backed investments, announces that its Managing Director, Keith Breslauer, is a finalist in the Individual Leader of the Year category at the Global Good Awards 2019.

The Individual Leader of the Year recognises those who have shown outstanding leadership in promoting responsible and ethical practices within their chosen field. Keith is a long-term supporter and trustee of the Royal Marines Charity (RMC), and his determination to support military veterans led him to establish the Patron Armed Forces Initiative, helping those whose life prospects have been impaired due to their military service transition into new, fulfilling careers, whilst supporting those suffering from mental health issues. Since 2010, Keith has raised in excess of £2m for the RMC and helped countless military veterans' transition into new, fulfilling careers.

Through his immersive approach to charity, Keith has shown how volunteers and charities can work together to change lives.

The Global Good Awards celebrate excellence in social impact and sustainability. The winners will be announced on the 19th June 2019 at BMA House in Tavistock Square, London.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

"While the charitable activities that the Patron team and I undertake are rewarding enough, I am extremely proud to have been recognised by the Global Good Awards for the great work we have done with Royal Marines veterans. I hope that the Patron Armed Forces Initiative can inspire other businesses to form mutually beneficial charity partnerships of their own and make a difference in the wider community."
