Patron Capital shortlisted at the Pensions Age Awards 2022

Patron Capital, the pan-European institutional investor focused on property-backed investments, has been shortlisted for Property Manager of the Year at the prestigious Pensions Age Awards 2022.

The Property Manager of the Year award honours firms that have shown a true understanding of the UK, European and global property markets and have been able to translate that knowledge into risk-adjusted returns for the benefit of their pension client. Following several opportunistic acquisitions and highly profitable exits and the ongoing work of the Women In Safe Homes fund, it has been an incredibly strong year for Patron Capital.

The Pensions Age Awards aim to reward both the pension schemes and the pension providers across the UK that have proved themselves worthy of recognition in these increasingly challenging economic times.

Keith Breslauer, Managing Director of Patron Capital, said:

“We are so pleased to have been shortlisted for Property Manager of the Year at the Pensions Age Awards. Despite the various challenges of the past year, Patron continues to perform strongly, differentiated by our longstanding team, responsible investment focus and social conscience, as well as our granular and creative approach.”
